

"Talent Tango: Fake it till you make it"

Event Details:

Event: Talent Tango

Theme: Fake it till you make it

Description: Step into the shoes of your favourite fictional character and showcase your charisma and quick thinking in this HR-inspired event.

Participants: Solo

Venue: D Block

Registration Fee: ₹50 per person

Main Coordinator: Prof. Supriya Singh

Faculty:

Rules & Regulations:

1. "Talent Tango: Fake it till you make it" invites participants to dive into a realm of creativity and spontaneity. It encourages participants to embrace creativity and quick thinking in a fun-filled event.
2. The mode of participation will be solo only.
3. Solo participants are required to craft and bring an imaginative CV for fictional characters like Harry Potter or Baburao, introducing themselves as these personas while justifying their unconventional resumes.
4. Following their character presentations, contestants face a panel of judges in an interview, where they must showcase wit and presence of mind. This event celebrates humor, innovation, and the ability to think on one's feet, providing a platform for participants to unleash their improvisational prowess.

Round 1:

Embrace your creativity as you craft a CV for a fictional character of your choice – be it the wizardly Harry Potter, the lovably bumbling Jethalal, or the iconic Baburao.

Your CV should be imaginative, unconventional, and brimming with humor.

Present yourself as the fictional character you've chosen and convincingly justify the CV you've created.

Round 2:

It's showtime! In the final round, participants will face a challenging interview where they must think on their feet, employing wit and charm to navigate through various scenarios.

"Mini Shark Tank"

Event Details:

- Event: Mini Shark Tank
- Participants: Team/Solo
- Venue: D Block
- Registration Fee: ₹20 per person
- Main Coordinator: Pprof. Supriya Singh
- Faculty:

Rules & Regulations:

- Participants can enter as either a solo founder or as part of a team with a designated co-founder/team leader for communication and coordination.
- Each team or solo participant will have a designated time slot (e.g., 15 minutes) to present their innovative startup idea to a panel of "sharks" or judges. Presentations can take the form of demos or PowerPoint presentations.
- Following the pitch presentation, the "sharks" will have the opportunity to negotiate with the teams and extend offers to invest in their startup ideas.

- If a team accepts an offer from a "shark", they will engage in negotiations regarding the terms of the investment, including equity stake, funding amount, and any additional conditions.
- Virtual funding may be offered by the "sharks" as part of the game.
- Effective communication and coordination are crucial, so each team must designate a co-founder or team leader.
- The panel of judges will evaluate each pitch based on criteria such as creativity, innovation, feasibility, market potential, presentation skills, teamwork, adaptability, and overall impact.