

❖ Event: Vishwa Parishad

Model United Nations (MUN) is a simulation of the United Nations' procedures. In a MUN conference, each student represents a country, organization, or person. Students role-play as UN delegates and engage in negotiations, discussions, and debates.

❖ Participants: Solo

❖ Venue: A - Block

❖ Fees: ₹40 per person

❖ Main Co-ordinator: Jalshree Bhatt

❖ Faculty: Dr. Jaimin Jani

❖ Dress code: Formals/ Indian Formals

❖ Rules & Regulations:

- Secretary-General, Directors, Chairs, Logistics Coordinator's decision will be the final decision.
- Participants must stick to the dress code
- Decorum should be maintained while MUN is in session.
- Any participant that is found misbehaving will be disqualified immediately.
- Participants will be evaluated on basis of following criterias
 - Understanding and analysis of international affairs (10 points)
 - Drafting skills (10 points)
 - Presentation (covering 360 viewpoint) (10 points)
 - Audience engagement (10 points)
 - Jury Q\A (10 points)

❖ Instructions

- Participants will be given the country on the spot. It is expected from the participants to have the knowledge about given country.
- It is suggested that the participants should research about international geo-political affairs prior to the event.
- Students take on the role of a diplomat.
- Students use public speech, debate, lobbying, and negotiations to create documents with their policy ideas called "draft resolutions".

- Notes are the official form of communication between delegates and chairs.